1. INTERPRETATION OF TERMS

1.1 In this constitution unless the contrary appears;

- 1.1.1 The act means the Associations Incorporation Act 1985 and any subsequent amendments, modifications or substitutions.
- 1.1.2 Words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
- 1.1.3 Month means calendar month.
- 1.1.4 Year means the period between successive annual general meetings.
- 1.1.5 Officer includes any person who is a member of the Committee or the president or the secretary or the treasurer or any other person concerned with the management of the club.
- 1.1.6 The president, the secretary and the treasurer shall mean those respective officers, from time to time of the club, and shall include any other person who is assigned to undertake specific duties of these officers as set out in this constitution.

1.2 Any doubt arising as to the application or meaning of any clause in this constitution shall be decided by a vote at a general meeting whose decision shall be conclusive and final.

1.3 The provisions of the act shall be deemed to be a part of this constitution and shall apply to the club except that where it is permissible for the constitution to differ from the act and to the extent that the constitution does so differ shall prevail.

1.4 Financial year shall be the period from 1 July in one year to 30 June in the immediately following year inclusive.

2. NAME

2.1 The name of the club shall be the "Amateur Radio Experimenters Group Incorporated" hereinafter referred to as AREG or AREG Inc.

3. OBJECT

3.1 The object for which the club is established is to promote, advance and represent in any way it deems fit, amateur radio and radio electronics, and the interests of club members in respect to amateur radio and radio electronics, and without limiting the generality of the following;

- 3.1.1 The promotion, encouragement and development of amateur radio and radio electronics.
- 3.1.2 The promotion and provision of assistance to and education and growth of club members and persons interested in self-improvement in the fields of amateur radio and radio electronics.

- 3.1.3 The promotion and provision of the social and wellbeing aspects of amateur radio and radio electronics.
- 3.1.4 The promotion and provision of the mental and physical health, fitness and sporting aspects of amateur radio and radio electronics activities.
- 3.1.5 The promotion and provision of amateur radio and radio electronics in support of community service.
- 3.1.6 The promotion and provision of the scientific and experimental advancement of the fields of amateur radio and radio electronics.
- 3.1.7 The encouragement and the raising of the awareness of the value of amateur radio and radio electronics to club members, interested persons and youth and the general public.
- 3.1.8 The cooperation with similar organisations, bodies, clubs and associations to achieve this object.
- 3.1.9 To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, easements, or property, real or personal, which may be requisite for the purposes of or, capable of being used for any of the objects of the club and from time to time to sell, exchange, mortgage, lease, dispose or otherwise part with the same or any part thereof upon such terms as the committee may think fit.
- 3.1.10 To accept subscriptions, donations and bequests, whether real or personal estate, for the object of the club.
- 3.1.11 To do all such acts, deeds, matters and things and to enter into and make such agreements as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the object of the club.
- 3.2 The income and property of the club shall be used solely towards the promotion of this object and shall not be paid to any members or relatives of members provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith to any person in return for services actually rendered or to any person in furtherance of the object of the club and without undue preference.
- 4. MEMBERSHIP
- 4.1 Membership shall be open to persons who are amateur operators or who have an interest in radio or electronics in general.
- 4.2 Members shall be persons who have agreed to accept the constitution, objects, rules and by-laws of the club and have paid the current membership fee, any arrears and any liability, which has arisen during the period of membership.

4.3 Applications for membership shall be submitted to the Secretary on the current application form signed by the applicant with payment of the current membership fee. This requirement may be met by digital facsimile with electronic signature.

4.4 The Committee shall consider applications for membership of the association and report to the applicant of its decision as soon as practicable.

4.5 The Committee shall in its absolute discretion approve or reject a membership application.

4.6 The Committee shall in its absolute discretion submit an application to a general meeting of the membership for approval or rejection by a majority of members present. This requirement may be met a poll on the mailing list.

4.7 If the Committee rejects a membership application, it is not required to give reasons for that decision for the purposes of the Act, but it shall;

4.7.1 Return the prescribed subscription fee paid by the applicant; and

4.7.2 Write to the person informing them their membership application has been rejected.

4.8 A person becomes a member when the Secretary adds the person's name and address to the members' register.

4.9 Full members are entitled to all the rights and benefits of membership as provided in this constitution and the rules and the by-laws of the club.

4.10 Persons who do not hold an amateur operator's certificate of proficiency or ACMA recognition certificate of any grade, or other suitable evidence of relevant radio or electronics experience shall only be eligible for associate membership. Such membership shall have no voting rights and shall not be eligible for nomination for the committee.

4.11 Subject to the provisions of this constitution and any rules and by-laws made by the committee as provided for in this constitution, for the time being in force, all members shall be entitled to use in common all the premises and facilities available to members.

4.12 A member may resign from the club by giving one month's notice of their intention to resign. Resignation does not extinguish any liability, which arose during the period of membership. Resignation does not entitle the member to any refund of subscriptions, donations and bequests.

5. SUBSCRIPTIONS

5.1 The committee shall make recommendation to the members at the first general meeting after the annual general meeting of the rate of the annual subscription for the coming year. The members present at that meeting shall then decide by majority resolution, the rate of the annual subscription.

5.2 Once decided by resolution, the prescribed subscription shall be due payable within the calendar month.

5.2.1 Any member in arrears shall not participate in the benefit of membership or club insurance.

5.2.2 Any member in arrears after two calendar months may be removed from the membership register without further notification.

New Member Subscription

5.3 The subscription for a new member shall be the full amount of the annual subscription regardless of when during the year the member applies for membership. The subscription shall be due payable within the calendar month of acceptance of membership application. In the second year of membership, the member shall be liable for the pro-rata amount so as to bring their continuing membership anniversary in alignment with the first general meeting after the annual general meeting.

6. VISITORS

6.1 Visitors may attend and participate in club activities at meetings or may attend and participate in activities not held in conjunction with meetings if invited by a full member of the club or if the meeting or activity was previously publicised to the public.

6.2 The club at no time shall be responsible or liable for any visitor at any club meeting, activity or event.

7. COMMITTEE

7.1 Management of the club and the control and custody of its funds and property shall be vested in the committee.

- 20.17 Any motions voted on by show of hands and carried shall be recorded as carried in the minutes without the necessity of proof by recording the number of votes for and against.

21. RESOLUTIONS

- 21.1 A resolution in writing, signed by all members of the committee, shall be valid as if it had been passed at a properly constituted meeting of the committee. Such resolution may consist of several documents in like form. All such resolutions shall be filed in the register of minutes.
- 21.2 Proposals or motions may be moved, seconded and voted on by members outside of general meetings, where the proposal or motion shall be circulated to all club members using any practical means of communication, written, voice, electronic, e-mail etc.
- 21.3 Such proposals or motions shall be limited to where;
- 21.3.1 It is necessary to meet the business needs of the club.
- 21.3.2 There is a level of urgency and needs to be actioned prior to the next general meeting.
- 21.3.3 Will be considered carried when affirmative votes meet the club quorum as provided in this constitution.
- 21.3.4 The president or secretary shall record details of the proposal in accordance with the club by-laws.

22. CONSTITUTION

- 22.1 This constitution shall only be repealed or amended by special resolution of three fourths majority of members present voting by secret ballot at a special general meeting called for that purpose of which not less than twenty-eight days written notice has been given specifying the nature of the business to be conducted.
- 22.2 The secretary shall supply a copy of the constitution and the rules without charge;
- 22.2.1 To all new members of the club.
- 22.2.2 On reasonable request to any existing member.

- 22.3 Any appointment or motion passed under the constitution hereby repealed, if in force at the commencement of this constitution shall continue in force as far as practicable as if made or passed under this constitution.
- 22.4 Any member or members wishing to propose additional new clauses or amendments to those in this constitution shall notify the secretary in writing of the proposed new clauses or amendments not less than fourteen days before the meeting at which there is to be a vote on the clauses or amendments.

- 22.5 The committee should, at least once in every five year period examine the constitution of the club and determine its relevance to the current situation of the club and if required make efforts to amend or replace the constitution.

23. PUBLIC STATEMENTS

- 23.1 The committee may appoint one of its number to be spokesperson.
- 23.2 If no spokesperson has been appointed by the committee, the president shall be spokesperson.
- 23.3 No statements on behalf of, or in the name of the club shall be made except by the spokesperson or by the president's authority.
- 23.4 The spokesperson shall make statements in accordance with previously agreed policy or in an emergency following consultation with at least two members of the executive.

24. NEUTRALITY

- 24.1 The club shall not identify itself in any way whatsoever with any religious group or take part in the activities of any such group. Club funds shall not be used for religious group purposes.
- 24.2 The club shall not identify itself in any way whatsoever with any political party or take part in the activities of any such party.
- 24.3 Club funds shall not be used for party political purposes but may be used for campaigns to lobby members of parliament on issues directly related to the club or its objects.
- 24.4 The club and members shall refrain from any representation, discussion, activity or action not related to the club objective.

25. SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

- 25.1 Any member who in the opinion of the committee has acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the club shall be called, with not less than seven days written notice specifying the charge or charges, to attend a meeting of the committee to deal with the charges provided that any member so charged shall have the right to be heard in defence at any such meeting.
- 25.2 If the committee finds any such charge proven, may suspend, expel or require such member to resign their membership of the club.

25.3 If any member so charged is unable to attend at the time and place of hearing the charge then, if they are able to satisfy the committee that it is impractical for them to attend at the time and place, the committee may adjourn the hearing until another time and place more suitable provided that any such adjournment shall not be longer than fourteen days and no further adjournment shall be given.

25.4 Any member so charged who is unsatisfied with the decision of the committee shall have the right of appeal to a general meeting of members that may confirm, alter or reverse the decision of the committee provided that any such decision shall be final and binding.

25.5 The procedure for hearing charges at a general meeting shall be the same as that for hearings by the committee except that there shall be no adjournment given.

25.6 Any member whose membership has been terminated as such shall not be eligible to rejoin the club;

25.6.1 For at least twelve months from the date of termination of membership.

25.6.2 Without the express permission of the committee.

26. NOTICES

26.1 A notice may be served by the club upon a member either personally or by prepaid post, addressed to such member at their last known address or by electronic means such as e-mail to the member's last known personal electronic address.

26.2 Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the letter containing the notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of the post. In proving such service it shall only be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and shall not be necessary to show that the same came to the knowledge of the addressee.

26.3 Any notice, if served by electronic means, shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the means containing the notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of the delivery. In proving such service it shall only be sufficient to prove that the means containing the notice was properly addressed and shall not be necessary to show that the same came to the knowledge of the addressee.

27. WINDING UP OF CLUB

27.1 The club shall be dissolved if;

27.1.1 A resolution to that effect is carried by a three fourths majority of members present at a special general meeting called for that purpose, written notice of not less than twenty-eight days written notice has been given to all members.

27.2 In the event of dissolution all assets remaining after payment of all liabilities and debts, any assets and records of the club that are remaining shall be granted to such institution or body as the special general meeting resolving on the dissolution shall determine.

27.3 Providing that the body or institution;

27.3.1 Has objects similar to those of the club.

27.3.2 Shall not permit in any way, the distribution of income or property to its members.

27.4 If no such determination is made then all assets and records of the club as aforemen approved on shall be transferred to the Wireless Institute of Australia with the advice that it is the 15 July 2025 intention that such assets and records should remain within South Australia where practicable and possible.
